SoundTrack_Cologne and SoundTrack_Zurich at the Film Music House at Sundance Film Festival

SoundTrack_Cologne (June 9 - 12, 2021) and its sister event SoundTrack_Zurich (September 28 -30, 2021) are happy to bring German and Swiss composers to the Film Music House during Sundance Film Festival. Composers Dascha Dauenhauer (German Film Award 2020, European Film Award 2021) and Olivia Predoli (Swiss Film Award 2020) will talk with host and fellow composer Hanna Sophie Lücke about their work experiences. The panel will be available on January 29, 2021 at <https://village.festival.sundance.org/panel-view/60077d2805f3bd9c04343717>. Film Music House is the destination for the intersection of Film and Music at Sundance Film Festival 2021.

Dascha Dauenhauer [.. bio follows]

Olivia Predoli is a singer, composer and multi-instrumentalist from Switzerland. She has released four studio albums, which have enabled her to explore different musical directions, tour extensively and collaborate with international artists, thereby defining a very personal style. She has also written scores for cinema and the theatre and has created several audiovisual installations.

Pedroli composed the soundtrack of Immer und Ewig (The Journey – a story of love) by Fanny Braüning (Prix de Soleure 2019, Zürcher Filmpreis 2019, Swiss Film Award 2020). She was nominated for the German Documentary Film Music Award at the DOK of München 2019 and won the Swiss Film Award 2020, Best Music Score.
